Child Labour (IPEC) in India for the period ending 31st December, 1993.

(c) To ensure proper implementation of the programme, a National Steering Committee (NSC) comprising representatives of Government, employers, workers and N.G.Os has been constituted. For selection of programmes to be recommended to ILO after due scrutiny, the NSC has framed broad guidelines. Programmes recommended by the NSC are considered for approval by the programme Steering Committee of ILO. Funds are released to the organisations directly after they enter into sub-contracts with ILO.

(d) Thirty action programmes covering about 9,600 working children throughout the country have so far been sanctioned under IPEC. These are focussed on children in industries (15 programmes), in agricultural sector (3) and those working in the informal and service sectors (12). In addition to awareness generation meant for the parents of working children and the community at large, the programmes envisage welfare activities such as non-formal education, nutritional assistance, health check-ups and vocational training.

(c) There is no "ILO Convention, 1990."

Disputes pending with Tribunals of Delhi

64. SHRI VISHWASRAO RAMRAO PATIL :

SHRI RAMENDRA KUMAR YADAV 'RAVI' :

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to refer to answer to Unstarred Question 761 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 1st March, 1993 and state :

(a) the period since when industrial disputes are pending for award with tribunals of Delhi Administration;

(b) what are the reasons for not announcing the awards in time; and

(c) what is the time required for announcing the awards ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI PABAN SINGH GHATOWAR) : (a) to (c) The information is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House.

Protest against introduction of Employees Pension Scheme

65. SHRI P. UPENDRA : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government propose to introduce a new Employees Pension Scheme;

(b) if so, whether the trade unions have protested against the proposal as it "militates against workers interest"; and

(c) whether Government proposes to withdraw the scheme in the interest of workers ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI PABAN SINGH GHATOWAR) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The proposed pension scheme is based on the unanimous recommendation of the Central Board of Trustees, Employees' Provident Fund which is a tripartite body consisting of representatives of employees, employers and Central/State Govts. The objective of the pension scheme is to provide comprehensive social security to the employees in the contingencies of death, permanent total disablement, superannuation, retirement etc. The scheme has, therefore, been generally welcomed. However, trade unions of certain establishments have protested against the proposal. As the Scheme is considered beneficial for the workers, the question of its withdrawal is not under consideration.
